

The size for the wedge can be found on a large white tag sewn directly into the hat.

The sizes for wedges can be found directly under the Logistik logo and run in 1/8" increments

The size for the boots can be found on a large white tag sewn to the tongue of the boot

The size is show by two numbers divided by a slash. the first digit is length in millimeters and the second is width in millimeters.

The size for the pants can be found on a large white tag sewn to the lining of the back pocket

The size is shown in a four digit number. The first two digits are the length in inches and the second two digits are the waist in inches. Also to be noted is The "H" number. Female pants have a hip measurement included on the tag in parentheses following the length and waist size.

The size for the dress shirt can be found printed into the inside collar of the shirt.

For males the size is the measurement around the neck in inches, men's sizes go in .5" increments. The women's sizes follow tradition female sizing systems and go in increments of two they also include a S, M, or L to denote short, medium, or long length.

The size for the tunic can be found on a large white tag sewn into the back collar area. The size is shown in four digits. The first two digits are the length in inches while the second two digits are the chest size in inches

